Boots on the Ground:
Advancing the Kingdom Together

The Flourish Conference

Our Panel of Speakers:

Kimberly Reese

Kimberly serves as the Connections Pastor at College First Church of God in Findlay, Ohio. In her ministry role, Kimberly spends time in pastoral care and counseling, organizing adult discipleship through classes and groups and teaching God's Word. Kimberly's greatest passion in ministry is sharing the love of Jesus with the least, last and lost. Kimberly is an ordained pastor in the Churches of God, General Conference.

Kimberly lives on a farm in northwest Ohio with her husband Erick and their four children. As a family, they strive to operate as a "family on mission" by welcoming people into their home and sharing the love of Jesus with them in tangible ways. Erick and Kimberly do not view ministry as a set apart time or space, but rather as an ongoing rhythm in our everyday lives.

Carey Simms

Carey is married to Gannon and lives in the Dallas, Texas area. She is founder of CreatedSpace. Carey creates an interactive, collaborative space for business and ministry leaders to process decisions and discern next steps. A spiritual director and ICF certified coach with 25 years in business and ministry. Carey holds an MBA from Regent University and an M. Div from Duke University.

As an entrepreneur, Carey is particularly interested in the intersection between theology and economics and how the church can make social impact while proclaiming the gospel. As a spiritual director, she delights in helping people develop practices that deepen and enliven their friendship with God.

In both Virginia and Texas, ministry evolved by responding to needs that emerged from prayer walks and community engagement. The hope is always to develop a dense, local network of kingdom innovators and entrepreneurs who collaborate and bring flourishing to an entire region. As former director for The Center for Faith and Leadership and church planter, Carey remains passionate about equipping young leaders through life-on-life discipleship and leading new forms of church.

Our Panel of Speakers:

April Ocasio

April is the pastor at Uplift Community Church of God in Halifax, Pa. She planted Uplift in 2017. She is also the founder and president of Isaiah 61 Ministries which serves the homeless and less fortunate in her county in Pa. She also serves on the board for Communities that Care in the Halifax area. April is married to Angel who has been a blessing to serve alongside of her in the homeless ministry. She is a mother to 5 children and 5 step children and grandmother to 9 grandchildren. When she is not working she loves to travel, watch her kids play the sports they love and fishing.

Elly Maconochie

Elly and her family moved to Fort Wayne, IN from the UK nine years ago in response to God's call to make missional disciples. She currently works in school administration and volunteers as a Court Appointed Special Advocate for children who have been abused and neglected. She attends New Grace Church in Fort Wayne - a small but diverse congregation - who are seeking to reach out to the children and families of one of the most under-resourced areas in the city.

Grace Maconochie

Raised in a missionary household immersed in a vibrant community of committed believers, Grace has a unique perspective on faith, community, and mission. Today, Grace is the creative director of 3DMovements, a nationwide non-profit dedicated to empowering everyday people to become missionaries in their local contexts. With a background in youth and young adult ministry, Grace is passionate about the next generation of believers and how they can become disciples who make more disciples.

Heidi Guyer

Pastor Heidi has been involved in various ministry aspects in & out of the church for nearly 20 years. Though she is not currently pastoring a church, she is finding her niche in the world to advance the kingdom in various ways. One of her soft spots in ministry is helping those struggling with loss in various forms. She began co-leading a GriefShare at her church a few years ago that helps those grieving the loss of a loved one in various stages of the process. She also is very involved in a local ministry that works with individuals, couples, and families dealing with miscarriage, stillbirth, neonatal death, and SIDS called Sweet Grace Ministries. Heidi lives in Shippensburg, PA in her biggest ministry role as a wife to Alan and a mom to a 12 year old son, and 10 year old daughter.

Our worship band is a collaboration of Findlay area Churches of God, General Conference Churches/Ministries worship team members.

His Blank Canvas

HIS Blank Canvas is a ministry that began out of a desire to incorporate art into a worship setting. Two artists work side by side, transforming a large blank canvas into an art masterpiece. HIS Blank Canvas has been invited to share in worship at many churches, youth groups, banquets, conferences, and other events. The artists give all praise to Jesus and desire to use their talents for His glory!
